

2021 SEEDS FOR THE FUTURE

HANDS-ON ICT TRAINING

What is Seeds for the Future?

Seeds for the Future is Huawei's flagship global CSR program. The program was launched in 2008. This program aims to develop skilled, local ICT talent and bridge communication between countries and cultures. By sharing our ICT expertise and experiences in the global business environment, young people from different countries can learn about advanced technologies in the ICT industry and accumulate ICT expertise and skills through the Seeds for the Future program, contributing to the progress of the global ICT industry.

Since 2014, Huawei Malaysia cooperated with the Ministry of Higher Education (MOHE) and has provided over 96 Malaysian undergraduates with the opportunity to be fully immersed into Huawei global business operations, cross-cultural work practices and Chinese culture.

Besides, students will get an opportunity to learn the latest ICT Technology from Huawei, enhance knowledge transfers, promote a greater understanding and interest in the telecommunications sector, and improve and encourage regional building and participation in the digital community.
